ALLIES CRUSH HUNS IN STUNNING VICTORY.

July 18.
(Special to BOURBON NEWS.)
American and French troops advance for miles in victory.

U. S. troops "go over the top" with French troops, captured guns, machine guns, prisoners, equipment and material in terrific onslaught.
2:00 p. m., July 18.—The entire offensive operation began this a. m. on the — front and is going on at this hour and even better success than had been expected. Enemy so far unable to withstand the shock. As the whole German life is menaced the enemy must withdraw or risk being caught where they are.

American troops have taken offensive with great gallantry—American troops participating both as complete divisions and separate units. First objectives seem everywhere to have been attained. Many prisoners taken.

VIOLATORS OF LIQUOR LAWS ARRESTED AND FINED.

The first instance of a violation of the recent anti-liquor laws that has reached the local courts came up Tuesday, when two colored men, George "Taters" Williams and Joe Downs, of Paris, and Will Carson, of North Middletown, were brought before County Judge Geo. Batterton for a hearing.

The men were placed under arrest by Patrolman Geo. W. Judy, as they alighted at Fourteenth street from the 2:15 interurban car from Lexington. Each man had a number of packages of suspicious bulkiness and bearing a general resemblance to those formerly brought from Lexington by the thirsty ones. The officer compelled the men to re-enter the car and brought them to the terminal station at Fifth and High streets, where their packages were inspected.

Williams had a box containing twelve half-pints, two quarts, and a gallon glass jug of beer. Carson's load consisted of five half-pints hidden under his clothes. Downs carried a quart in the outside pocket of his coat. When presented in court Downs pleaded ignorance of wrong doing. County Attorney D. D. Cline quoted court decisions in several cases, pro and con, and especially that of the Court of Appeals, to the effect that a man could bring liquor into local option territory for his personal use. Judge Batterton imposed a fine of $50 and imprisonment of twenty-five days at hard labor on Williams, and gave Carson a fine of $50 and ten days in jail. Carson being subject to the draft call, will be released by the court.

After County Attorney Cline had submitted authorities and decisions bearing on the "personal use" phase of the question, and the sentences had been imposed on the prisoners, Judge Batterton took the cases under further consideration, for a final decision as to their legal aspects.

Late Wednesday afternoon Judge Batterton, after reviewing the cases in all their phases and studying the authorities and other decisions in like cases, gave it as his opinion that the part of the anti-shipment law so far as a man bringing liquor for his personal use, was unconstitutional and void. The anti-shipment feature, he held as being binding and in full force and effect. In his opinion a man could not bring in liquor for another, but he could do so for his personal use, under the rights and liberties guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States. The opinion was given in the case of Joseph Downs, of Brentsville, who brought one quart of whiskey to Paris from Lexington, for his personal use. Downs carried the package in his outside pocket, unwrapped, and not in the nature of a "concealed deadly weapon." Judge Batterton's decision is in line with many other similar ones where the "personal use" issue has been raised.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I wish to call your attention to the ordinance published in this issue of THE NEWS, showing a comparison as to the past in the contract with the Paris Gas & Electric Co., for lighting the streets, which expired March 1, 1918.

Thirty-nine 400 C. P. lamps, $70.00 per year each; 221 80 C. P. lamps, $22.50 per year each. They increased February 28, 1918, for a new contract as follows: 39 400 C. P. lamps, $75.00; 221 80 C. P. lamps, $25.50. The ordinance figures 400 C. P. lamps $38.37 each, and 80 C. P. lamps at $12.82 each. For consumers, old contract, as follows: 1st 25 Kilowatts, 12; next 50, 11; next 100, 10; next 150, 9; next 200, 8; next 250, 7; next 300, 6; next 350, 5; less 1 ct. per KWH. Compare this with the ordinance.

Regarding the gas rates until we have made further investigations as to reasonableness of present prices, we will not change prices at present, but we will require them to give you gas at the proper pressure, which they failed to do in the past. If they do not give you the required pressure we will reach them by our ordinance.

Yours Respectfully,
E. B. JANUARY, Mayor.

COLORED DRAFTEES LEAVE FOR CAMP ZACHARY TAYLOR.

Seventy-five colored men, regularly selected in the draft call from Bourbon county, and three alternates, for emergency, seventy-nine in all, reported to the Bourbon County Board of Exemption at the court house in this city yesterday afternoon for final instructions. They were addressed by the Chairman of the Board, Judge C. A. McMillan, and, after being given their final instructions, listened to a patriotic address by David Miller. Last night the men were the guests of the people of Paris at a banquet given at the colored A. M. E. church, where a patriotic program was rendered, and the men made to feel that they were the wards of a grateful country, who appreciated the sacrifices they were making. The men were placed under the care of John R. Ross, one of their number, who had been designated as Captain.

At 7:15 this morning the delegation assembled in front of the court house, and headed by the Liberty Drum and Bugle Corps, marched to the Tenth street station of the Louisville and Nashville, where they entered for Camp Zachary Taylor, to enter the services of the United States. LOCAL MAN WINS RACE FOR INSURANCE HONORS.

In the race for Marathon honors inaugurated some time ago by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. R. F. Clendenin, of Paris, broke all records for his company in the United States, when he was declared the winner, at a meeting of the agents and managers, held in Milwaukee. Mr. Clendenin's record for the twelve months ending June 30, 1918, was as follows:

Number of lives insured, 207; paid business, $456,780. His closest competitor had insured 163 lives. At the meeting at which the awards were made Mr. Clendenin delivered an address to the members on the subject of "Insuring Farmers' Lives."

PARIS ATTORNEY ALLOWED BIG CLAIM FOR SERVICES.

At Frankfort yesterday Circuit Judge Robert L. Stout handed down a decision allowing a claim of $15,000 to Attorney John J. Williams, of Paris, and Judge John M. Lansing, of Newport, for services rendered to date as attorneys for the State Bank-Exchange & Co. State Bank, of Paris. To date the Alexander Bank has paid $2 1/4 per cent., and other suits are still pending.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS IN ADJOURNED SESSION.

Representatives of the City Council and the Paris Gas & Electric Co., failed to reach an agreement at a conference held Tuesday afternoon in the private office of Mayor January in the First National Bank building, and further consideration of the points at issue between the city and the lighting company remains uncertain.

City Attorney Denis Dundon represented the city, and was assisted by Consulting Engineer W. H. Weiss, of Kansas City, Mo. The Paris Gas & Electric Co. was represented by its vice-president, Mr. J. W. Porter, of St. Louis, and Mr. Wade H. Whitley, of Paris.

The City Council met in adjourned session at eight o'clock on Tuesday evening, and without further delay proceeded with the passage of certain ordinances providing certain rules and regulations and fixing certain prices, rates, tolls and charges by which the Paris Gas & Electric Co., or any other company, individual or corporation may do business in this city. When the ordinances were considered and passed there were no representatives of the light company present.

Under the new ordinances the city will save about $2,500 annually, with a large annual saving to individual consumers. In all probability the passage of the ordinances will lead to municipal ownership of an electric lighting plant for the city and by the city, or the institution of a suit in the courts to restrain the action of the city until the courts can determine the merits of the controversy. A resolution was adopted authorizing an issue of $10,000 in bonds for the construction of the new sewer from Stoner avenue to South Main street, and another providing for the sale of the bonds. These ordinances and resolutions are printed in full on page four of this issue of THE NEWS. Read them.

A motion made by Councilman Arkle providing for a license of $15 per year on all boarding houses in the city of Paris was lost by a vote of 4 to 2. A resolution was adopted instructing the City Clerk to notify the Chief of Police to rigidly enforce the ordinance imposing a dog tax and license, and to take up and impound each and every dog found on the streets of the city or elsewhere without the required license tag.

Councilman Merringer in a few concise and well-chosen remarks, addressed the Council on the subject of the menace to the public health by the water supply being furnished to the citizens of the city by the Paris Water Co. Mr. Merringer stated, in part, that as long as consumers used water so liberally the city would be without an adequate pressure. He urged the city to appropriate funds or to raise the money in some way, directly or indirectly, and build a modern dam across Stoner creek, near the railroad bridge on the Maysville

FOR THE FATHERLESS CHILDREN OF FRANCE.

One fine thing about setting a good example is that it always arouses a desire in others to go and do likewise. Just look below and see what one good Clark county woman did all because she got interested in the French babies.

About ten days ago, Mrs. A. B. Hancock talked to Mrs. Nelson Gay, of Winchester, with the result that Mrs. Gay adopted five orphans. Now she is sending in the following list of names, with the accompanying checks, requesting that these generous Clark county people be included in the Bourbon County Chapter of the Fatherless Children of France:

Mr. L. B. Cockrell.
Mr. W. W. Gay.
Mrs. N. F. VanMeter.

Others from Bourbon who have enrolled since the last issue are:

Mrs. Dan Peed.
Miss Virginia Wetherall.
Mrs. Florence Lockhart Clay.
Mrs. Clarence Kenney.

There are lost of vacant pages in the ledger, and thousands of fatherless children yet to be provided for. If you can spare $36.50 this year, will you not allow a little child to stay with its mother?

GOVERNMENT CALLS FOR MORE WALNUT LOGS.

More walnut wood is needed for gun stocks and airplane propellers, and the Bureau of Aircraft Production has called upon all persons who have any of this wood growing or cut to sell it to the sawmills holding government contracts.

In this issue of THE NEWS appears an advertisement from the Wood Mosaic Co., at Lexington, seeking walnut timber for government purposes, as outlined above. Anyone in the county having walnut timber to sell should communicate with this firm at the address given in the "reader."

Paris branch of the Louisville & Nashville, near the Paris Ice Manufacturing Co.'s plant. Mr. Merringer's speech was well received, but the Council took no official action on it. Mr. Merringer giving it as a suggestion for future action. On motion a committee with power to act for the purpose of ascertaining the legal rights of the Paris Milling Co., in regard to water supply and the use of the dam at this point, was appointed.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Miss Frances Hancock received a letter from Miss Ruby Mangum, of Henderson, formerly of Paris, in which the writer stated that she had volunteered for duty overseas as nurse in the Red Cross work for the soldiers, and expected to be in France before the coming of fall.

Lieut. Catesby Spears, who is stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, in the U. S. army service, arrived in Paris, Wednesday, on a furlough, to visit relatives and friends, and to attend to important business matters for E. F. Spears & Sons, of which he is a member.

Information was received here Wednesday by relatives to the effect that Lawrence James and Earl Curtis, of Paris, who have been stationed for the past two years in army camps in Texas, were recently transferred to an embarkation port in the East, where they will become members of an American Expeditionary Force to operate in France.

Mr. Kenney Kiser, of Paris, who has been stationed at Detroit, Mich., in the naval service, is here on a ten-days' furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Kiser, near Paris. Young Kiser has been engaged in radio construction work on the new ships being built on the waterfront at Detroit. Kiser is a splendid specimen of American youth, weighing 210 pounds, and being over six feet in height.

Mrs. Harriet Minaker, visiting Nurse for the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, received a letter this week from her brother, Mr. Rodney Fringle, detailing camp life at Camp Funston, in Kansas, where he has been stationed for some time. Mr. Fringle is a member of Co. K, 41st Infantry. He says the life is to his liking with the exception of the dust and sand, which is so dense at times as to totally obscure everything.

Lieut. Rogers T. ("Podge") Moore, formerly of Paris, was in Lexington, Wednesday, enroute to the U. S. army rifle range at Camp Perry, near Toledo, Ohio. Lieut. Moore has been stationed at a cavalry training school in Texas since being removed from Hattiesburg, Miss. He left Lexington yesterday morning for Camp Perry to take up his new duties.

Mr. Jesse Lovely, of Lexington, son of Mrs. Jack Lovely, formerly of Paris, has arrived safely in France, according to advices received by relatives in Lexington and Paris. Mr. Lovely was a private in the Sanitary Company, 115th Field Artillery, and had been in Ireland several weeks before being sent to the battle front. Before enlisting in the service he was engaged in the drug business in Lexington.

Mrs. Bernard Santen was called to Camp Zachary Taylor, Tuesday, by a long distance message from her husband, telling her he would be transferred that day to another camp. Mrs. Santen motored to the camp Tuesday, remaining until yesterday afternoon. Mr. Santen, who has been bookkeeper in the regimental office at Camp Taylor, has been transferred to Camp Beauregard, near New Orleans, where he has been assigned to special duty as bookkeeper at the camp.

Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of Paris, received a package from her son, Jas. Everman, mailed from somewhere overseas. The package contained a late copy of the London Illustrated News, and two large photographs, one showing the U. S. battleship "Texas" rolling through a big storm, the other showing the same ship peacefully riding at anchor in an Atlantic port. There was no postmark to indicate where the package was mailed from, but it bore foreign postage stamps.

Through the long morning and afternoon hours Wednesday scores of young women, anxious mothers, sisters and sweethearts waited patiently at the Tenth street passenger station of the L. & N. A rumor to the effect that the Bourbon county boys who went to Ft. Thomas, Monday, would pass through Paris en route to a Southern cantonment, caused the anxious ones to gather at the station. Some even waited until late in the night, but if the train came through it was later in the night. The disappointed watchers left the station hoping to hear further news, but none came to cheer them.

CANNING DEMONSTRATIONS.

Mrs. Martha M. Golsan, Bourbon County Home Demonstrator, gave a demonstration in the canning of beans at the school house near Clay's Cross Roads, at 2:30 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Golsan gave a demonstration in the canning of peaches at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thompson, near Paris. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon she will give a practical demonstration in making cottage cheese at the home of Mrs. Tate, near Riddles Mills.

Mrs. Golsan is doing a good work in instructing housewives in methods of canning as a means of stopping waste of food products and in the conservation of food as a way of helping to win the war.

ROOSEVELT'S YOUNGEST SON KILLED IN AIR BATTLE.

Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, youngest son of the former American President, has been killed in an air fight, the semi-official Havas News Agency announces. His machine fell into the enemy lines.

Lieut. Roosevelt was last seen in combat on Sunday morning with two enemy airplanes about ten miles inside the German lines in the Chateau Thierry sector. He started out with a patrol of thirteen American machines. They encountered several Germans and were chasing them back, when two of them turned on Lieut. Roosevelt.

Reports of the fight state that the Germans appeared to be shooting at the Lieutenant from the rear the three machines being close together. Then one of the machines was seen tumbling through the clouds, and a patrol which went in search of Lieut. Roosevelt returned without trace of him. He appeared to be fighting up to the last moment.

One account of the combat states that the machine caught fire before it began to fall.

Phillip Roosevelt, Quentin's cousin, witnessed the air battle in the vicinity of Chateau Thierry in which Quentin was engaged and saw the machine fall, but did not know until later that the airplane was that of his cousin, Le Journal says.

BUY COAL NOW; THE FUEL ADMINISTRATOR ADVISES IT.

It is going to be hard to get coal later on. It may be another severe winter. The heating proposition may become serious. Buy our coal now and prepare for an emergency. While we do not anticipate a shortage of gas, we cannot tell what might happen on account of the uncertainty of the existing conditions. It will be our aim to give all our customers all the natural gas that is available—which will no doubt fill the wants under the ordinary circumstances, but it is urged that everyone who can to supply themselves with coal while it is available, so as to be prepared for emergencies. Anyhow, the Government is asking that you buy coal NOW instead of waiting until later.

PARIS GAS & ELECTRIC CO. (Incorporated)

A MYSTERIOUS HAPPENING.

Wednesday night as William Burris, son of Mr. E. J. Burris, of Cypress street, was going home from the Y. M. C. A., he noticed two men standing in the shadow of a tree near his home. The men were engaged in earnest conversation, and both wore masks. The men evidently did not see young Burris as he passed close to them. They kept up their conversation, the trend of which was that if they couldn't get in somewhere with the right key, they knew where to find a key that would fit the lock, and that they could get in anyway.

The talk aroused young Burris' suspicions, and he determined to follow them and see what they were up to. He followed them some distance and saw them get into a machine which had been left standing on the side of the street and slowly drive away. In the light afforded by an arc light Burris caught the number of the car and followed it around until it wound up on Parris avenue, where the men, still wearing their masks, got out and went around to the rear of the house. Then he saw no more of them.

Burris informed the police of the occurrence, giving the number of the car, a Franklin machine, bearing the license tag 356. The authorities at Frankfort were communicated with, and told of the circumstances. They gave the reply that the car belonged to a Danville man. Inquiry of the Danville police developed the fact that the car belonged to a restaurant man there. The men and the car have both disappeared, leaving the mystery of the masked men and the car, which they had evidently stolen, unsolved.

"MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER TEA."

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a "Miscellaneous Shower Tea" Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in honor of Miss Elizabeth Brown, bride-elect of their pastor, Mr. J. J. Rice.

The Sunday school room was decorated artistically for the occasion with the season's flowers, and the tea table was a "thing of beauty," the color scheme being pink and white.

After the guests arrived a bridal procession of lovely young girls entered the room and met two maids of honor, escorted the bride-to-be to her seat, a chair beautifully decorated, after which the gifts, which were numerous and most attractive and useful were unwrapped and the accompanying verses read and enjoyed. Delicious refreshments of tea and sandwiches were then served.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

As To The Tightwad.

Our readers will pardon us if we give our opinion of the stingy man. We are glad that Paris has only a few of the kind, but they can be found in all towns. If there is anything on earth that gives us a longing for eternal rest and deep, damp solitude it is for a man to come to town or a county, build up a big paying business, grow rich, then squat down on the gold like an old hen on a bunch of eggs. He is too stingy even to let the gravel grind in his own gizzard.

A real, genuine, eighteen-carat, stingy, selfish man must have a hard time trying to be honest, and if he ever gets to Heaven and has wings, he will fold them up and walk around for fear he will ruffle one of the plumes or lose a tall feather. The kind of men who build up a town and county and enjoy life and make the best citizens, are the enterprising, energetic and liberal men, who believe in living and in letting others live. They do not when they get a dollar squeeze it until the Goddess of Liberty feels as if she had on a corset. Such squeezing is what causes hard times and stops the circulation of the American eagle. If it were not for our broad-gauged, enterprising men it would be impossible to build up a prosperous city.

Taking The Joy Out of Life.

An unpleasant mid-summer reminder of the cold days to come is the warning of the Fuel Administrator that a plan for the rationing of coal to householders in under consideration. Under this plan each domestic consumer will be allotted a certain amount of coal, in accordance with his necessities, but based strictly on scientific conclusions as to the amount absolutely necessary, without avoidable waste, to maintain heat at sixty-eight degrees.

The coal wasters and the families who insist on running the temperature of their living rooms up to eighty degrees or higher, will come out at "the little end of the horn" toward the latter part of the winter, if it is as severe as last winter. It therefore behooves every household using coal as a fuel to get the stoves and furnaces in shape to burn, not waste; fuel, and to make up his mind to the strictest economy, if he is to get through the winter without serious differences with the coal dictator.

Speaking of Nerves.

Gen Von Bernhardt some years ago, in his work entitled "Germany and The Next War," predicted that the Kaiser would win because the Germans had stronger nerves than the Allies. But the nerves of men grow weak when their food supplies are lessened. A ditherless and supercilious man loses the "sand in his craw," and the food riots in Germany are said to be growing in size every day.

It may be truthfully said that labor in Germany and Austria has grown sick of the war, while in the Allied countries, as in the United States, it is growing more and more whole-hearted and is demanding that the fighting shall continue until complete victory over the Kaiser shall be obtained. And recent victories of the Allies, especially the wonderful stand made by the Americans in the new German drive, have let the Germans know what "our boys" are over there for.

Pride or Caution.

Was it because you feared you might get hurt or because you wanted by-standers to smile approval at your wise caution that you shook your head, turned around and returned to the street corner instead of trying to cross the street in front of one of those fast-approaching automobiles?

Whatever your motive may have been you probably saved your life by your action. There are times in life when it is better to act with common sense than to stop to analyze motives. Automobiles on Main street in this city have a contrary habit of coming right on no matter if it is known that you want to cross to the other side of the street. Stop, look, listen—safety first!

Has Anybody Seen Bryan?

An erstwhile popular song asked in its refrain, "Has Anybody Seen Kelley?" It might now with propriety be revived, with the query, "Has Anybody Seen Bryan?" We do not remember to have seen his name in the public prints for a coon's age, and even the Chautauquas have ceased to exploit him.

A pacifist seems without honor in any country and Mr. Bryan having been tried at a critical time and found wanting there is no more help in him. The man who was once the pride of millions of Democrats seems to have been dropped from memory to work out his future in sackcloth and ashes. As a general thing a pacifist won't do to trust, no matter how much he protests his loyalty.

The Hooverized Home.

Here's a practical view of a typical Hooverized home in Paris, as told in verse to THE NEWS by a lady:

"We're eating rye bread at our house,
With cornbread on the side;
We've cornmeal mush at breakfast time,
At noon we have it fried.
We eat no wheat, we eat no meat,
And soon we'll form the habit
Of eating carrots every day
Just like a little rabbit!"

BRITISH AIRMEN BRING DOWN 3,856 HUN PLANES.

LONDON, July 18.—In one year on the British western front the Royal Air Force has accounted for 3,238 enemy airplanes. In the same period the naval airmen shot down 623, a total of 3,856. An official statement dealing with these operations says:

"The Royal Air Force during the year beginning July 1, 1917, on the British western front destroyed 2,150 hostile machines and drove down out of control 1,083. In the same period the air force units working in conjunction with the navy shot down 623 hostile machines.

"During this period 1,094 of our machines were missing; ninety-two of these were working with the navy. On the Italian front from April to June, 1918, the British destroyed 165 hostile machines and drove down six out of control. Thirteen of ours were missing.

"On the Saloniki front between January and June twenty-one hostile machines were destroyed and thirteen were driven down out of control. Four of ours were lost.

"From March to June in Egypt and Palestine twenty-one hostile airplanes were destroyed and fifteen were driven down out of control. Ten of ours were missing.

"In all the theaters of the war the British air superiority and strength progressed rapidly and continuously. From this it is safe to assume that when the new factor of America's output, both aircraft and personnel, enters the situation in the fighting zones, the aerial ascendancy of the Allies should give them very great advantages."

FORTY THOUSAND MEN NEEDED FOR NAVY.

Forty thousand more men are needed at once for the navy, according to the United States Navy Recruiting Station, 412 South Fourth street, Louisville. The Naval Appropriation bill just passed by Congress makes provision for this increase. Kentucky has been asked to furnish 2,000 of this number, and it is expected that this quota will be raised during the month of July. Nearly all ratings in the navy are now open for enlistment with excellent opportunities for both skilled and unskilled men.

"Furloughs to help with the crops are being granted boys at the Naval Training Station at Great Lakes," said Lieut. J. H. Teach, recruiting officer for Kentucky. "This should prove to be of help to farmer boys who can enlist and go to the Great Lakes, and then get a furlough for farm purposes. Kentucky has responded well to previous calls, and I feel sure we will break all records this time, too."

Navy Recruiting Stations are located at Ashland, Covington, Lexington, Owensboro, Paducah and Bowling Green. In addition to the main office at Louisville.

Politicians may be interested to observe that pictures of the Presidential sheep on the White House lawn show no black sheep in the flock.

(1) ROY ENDICOTT.

—Mr. William Burroughs, aged seventy-six, for many years a prominent and prosperous farmer of this vicinity, died at 8:45 yesterday morning at the family home in this city, after an illness of two years, due to the infirmities of age. During his long illness Mr. Burroughs had borne up with a fortitude unusual for one of advanced age, but the strain on his vitality was too great to endure much longer.

Mr. Burroughs was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Burroughs, pioneer resident of Nicholas county. Leaving his parental roof at an early age he engaged in farming in this neighborhood, and by dint of economy and thrift accumulated sufficient funds to purchase a farm for himself. His death occurred within sight of the old house in which he was born and passed his younger days. Early in life he was married to Miss Mary Parker. By this union six children were born, five sons, G. S. Burroughs, of New Albany, Ind., James, Charles, John and Jesse Burroughs, all of Millersburg, the latter being in the service of the United States at an army cantonment somewhere in Illinois, and one daughter, Miss Frances Burroughs, of this city.

Mr. Burroughs early in life became identified with the Christian church, in which he became a deacon in the congregation, and at the time of his death being an elder. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Hurst Home Insurance Co., and was a solid, substantial citizen in every respect. Besides the children named above he is survived by two brothers, Dr. Henry Clay Burroughs and Mr. K. D. Burroughs, both of this place, and four sisters, Mrs. J. W. Dalzell, of Kansas, Mrs. Wm. Norton, of Carlisle, Mrs. J. C. Ringo, of Mexico, Mo., and Miss Nancy Burroughs, of this city.

The funeral arrangements had not been completed yesterday, pending the receipt of news from Mr. Jesse Burroughs, his son, who is in the army service. The funeral will be conducted from the home, however, with services held by the pastor of his church, Rev. C. O. Cossaboom. The interment will follow in the Millersburg Cemetery.

—The Millersburg Chautauqua was continued Sunday evening with Miss Pearl O'Neill, Canadian reader, in the prelude, followed by Capt. Richard P. Hobson in a lecture entitled "America and The World War." The lecture was long and of considerable depth. He is not as fluent a speaker as some we have heard.

Monday afternoon Vierra's Royal Hawaiians gave a full concert in the afternoon of Hawaiian music, and a brief description of the Islands were also given by Mr. Vierra. Their music is somewhat peculiar but sweet. It was enjoyed by all who heard them and they were the recipients of many encores. In the evening the Hawaiians gave a prelude, followed by Bob Seeds in his humorous lecture, "The Way It Looks From the Road." To meet Mr. Seeds you would take him for most anything rather than a platform man, but when he appears before you you are soon satisfied that he is on his job. His lecture is full of humor and philosophy. Notwithstanding the fact that he has an impediment of speech he keeps you laughing from first to last. And at the same time he is always giving you something to think about and carrying away with you.

The program of Tuesday afternoon music variety. In the afternoon we were entertained by DeJeu, magician, who was clever in all his tricks, exposing many of them, and DeVito, piano-accompanist, the king of the accordion. His instrument was especially made for him, and he is able to play on it in any key the music might call for. He is certainly an artist in his line and gave us samples of all grades of music from the simplest ragtime to the most classical. Dr. Roland Nichols gave an interesting lecture entitled, "The Way Of The War." It was in every respect good, and one that every mother, wife, sister and sweetheart should hear. He was not one of those men who tells you what you ought to do and having nothing at stake himself. On the contrary, he has one son and two son-in-laws on the battlefield of France. In his brief reference to his family he touched the heart of all who heard him, and many eyes were moist.

In the evening DeJeu and DeVito furnished the prelude. They were followed by George Eustace Pearson, one of the few survivors of the Princess Pats regiment of Canada, who gave us an insight into life in the trenches and the horrors of battle. He was earnest in his work and positive in his denunciation of the Kaiser and Kaiserism, telling what would have to be done before the war closed. Some little exception was taken during his address in regard to the light, flippant way he treated death, but those of us who heard him have not lived in the trenches as has and have not come face to face with the enemy, suffering the horrible experiences that he and his comrades endured. His lecture was good and will bear repeating any time and in any place.

Wednesday afternoon and evening the Navassars Orchestral Band, consisting of fifteen ladies, gave two complete concerts. This was the best aggregation of the kind our people ever had the good fortune to listen to. Each lady was an artist. The music was unquestionably good and admitted of considerable variety. Their programs were by far more classical than any of the musical aggregations we have had during the Chautauqua, and certainly pleased all who heard them. Thus closes the most brilliant Chautauqua of the series that have been conducted here since their organization. It was thought early in the season that it would be best to give up the Chautauqua during the war, but as the program proceeded our citizens became more interested, and at a meeting of the promoters of the Chautauqua after the afternoon session of Monday it was decided to continue it. We are promised another brilliant program for next year. And we believe that White & Myers will be able to give it to us. The organization came out on top.

BURLEY TOBACCO COMPANY DECLARES 6% DIVIDEND.

Five hundred stockholders in Bourbon County will be interested in the announcement that the Burley Tobacco Society has declared a dividend of 6 per cent. on its $1,050,000 capital stock, and that probably $40,000 in stock is held by stockholders alone in Bourbon County.

The Burley Tobacco Society is now believed to be on a firm basis financially, after a business career of nine years, during which time much useless and costly litigation has been forced on officers of the company, costing the stockholders some $300,000 in litigation expenses.

The Burley Tobacco Society, owned largely by tobacco growers in the Burley district, now owns 16 warehouses, and besides being large buyers and sellers of tobacco, are successfully conducting their large tobacco manufacturing plant. The following notice to Bourbon stockholders has been issued:

"A six per cent. dividend has been declared by the Burley Tobacco Company, payable only on presentation of stock certificate.

"The checks for this dividend to Bourbon County stockholders will be given out on Saturday, July 20, at the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Company, by John T. Collins. If all are not delivered on that day they will be delivered on each succeeding Saturday until all are delivered. Be sure to bring your certificate of stock, otherwise you cannot get your check."

VON HINDENBURG SAID TO HAVE "CROSSED OVER."

AMSTERDAM, July 18.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg is dead, according to the newspaper Les Nouvelles. His death is said to have occurred after a stormy interview with the German Emperor at Great Headquarters at Spa. The Emperor and the Field Marshal are declared to have had serious differences of opinion concerning the German offensive toward Paris. The Field Marshal died from congestion of the brain.

The violent interview between Von Hindenburg and Emperor William occurred on May 18, Les Nouvelles says. It was followed by an apoplectic stroke which ultimately resulted in the Field Marshal's death.

The newspaper says its information was obtained "from good sources in the occupied district of Belgium."

GOVERNMENT MEN ARREST THE HANGERS-ON AT LATONIA.

CINCINNATI, July 18.—Nearly 500 men, alleged to have been without draft cards, were caught in the Government dragnet at the Latonia racecourse Saturday afternoon, on the last day of the meeting.

Street cars, automobiles and wagons were pressed into service to convey the men to the Covington police headquarters.

The arrests were made by the Covington police, Secret Service man and draft officials, assisted by the Sheriff and deputies.

The visit of the officials came without warning and almost demoralized the big Saturday afternoon crowd. Late Saturday night the police had released all but five negroes. One hundred and fifty men had no cards and were held until satisfactory proof was given or cards were produced by friends or relatives.

Count von Luxburg is promised all the safe conduct the allies can give him, but he must still take some chance of being sunk without trace.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS HAS A RIVAL

When Fred Stone, the popular star of "Jack O' Lantern," the well-known New York musical comedy, arrived in Los Angeles for a dip in the picture game, he was met at the Santa Fe Depot by Jesse Lasky, Douglas Fairbanks and a band of be-chapped buckaroos, says the September Motion Picture Classic. The minute he stepped off the car, he was promptly lassoed, and a second later Doug Fairbanks held a pistol over Stone's head. Fred Stone grinned. "I'm your prisoner," he chuckled. "Take my money, but spare my life." The new star wanted to see everything there was to be seen in the Lasky studio, and everyone was keen to show him about. "Your first work will be done on this tight-rope," said his director, Donald Crisp, as they passed a seat. Stone grinned again, this time more expansively than the time before. "Up we go," he cried, and sprang on the taut wire. He skinned up the ladder like a simian, fully dressed, merely discarding his overcoat, which he had worn by Eastern force of habit. Once aloft, he was more at home than ever. He stood on his head and did stunts that made the others gasp, while even Crisp was becoming nervous for his star's safety. Down he shinned presently and hastened over to the big tent set for his picture. Up the side he went, half-way to the ridgepole, and slid down again, landing on a lion's cage, where he was shortly to make the acquaintance of two jungle-bred, untamed kings of the forest. As he came down Doug Fairbanks pinioned him with his ever ready lasso. Fred laughed and extricated himself, spinning the rope and catching Doug. Fred Stone is going to give us some great stunts in pictures—Doug Fairbanks will have to invent some new ones.

STATE GIVES 67,090 BOOKS TO ARMY MEN.

Kentucky has given a total of 67,092 books to the boys in the trenches and in the camps in less than one year. Not only has the State recognized its duty along this line but it has contributed $30,000 toward the war library fund. These facts are contained in the annual report of Miss Fannie Rawson, secretary of the Kentucky Library Commission. When the first call was made for books for the boys the Library Commission force collected 500 volumes in response to an urgent wire from Washington for immediate service for Kentucky boys at Hattiesburg.

When the work of collecting books and the drive for war library funds was first started there was some doubt in many minds as to the need of the library service for the soldiers. When General Pershing gave the order that shipping space be given the American Library Association for fifty tons each month, meaning 100,000 volumes, Miss Rawson said, all doubt disappeared, the people of the State realizing the urgency of the need.

During the year the Library Commission has responded to 923 calls from libraries alone. These calls cover every field of library endeavor. The traveling library collection continues to grow. One year ago there were 9,705 volumes in the traveling libraries. This number has been increased to 10,216 volumes.

The needs of the commission, Miss Rawson said in her report, are mostly legislative. The most urgent need is that of an increased appropriation. The commission was started in 1910 with $6,000 for the annual expenditure. This amount has not been increased.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE CONTROL OF TOBACCO BUSINESSES

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Government control of the tobacco industry of the United States may result from the heavy requirements of the Allies and the American military forces abroad. Rationing of the American population is believed to be a possibility.

The War Industries Board announced Sunday that it has been conducting an investigation to determine the requirements abroad and the amount that must be conserved in this country to meet the situation. It estimates that approximately two-thirds of the leaf tobacco raised in this country in 1917 will be available for American manufacturers. Out of this must come cigarettes and pipe tobacco for troops not yet overseas, and exports of manufactured tobacco purchased here for Belgium.

The crop in 1917 was 1,196,000,000 pounds, and of this the board estimates 850,000,000 pounds will be available this year for United States manufacturers, while 346,000,000 pounds a year, the board said. England and France each allot 40 per cent. of their entire consumption to the army and navy, while Italy allows her military forces 45 per cent. The total yearly consumption of the entire population of these countries the board estimates at 387,000,000 pounds, or 41,000,000 more than this country is able to export.

The War Industries Board quotes the annual per capita consumption of the United States and the Allies as follows: Italy, 2 pounds; France 3½ pounds; Great Britain, 4 pounds, and the United States 7½ pounds.

EPISTLE FROM DENNIS SNAPP IN "LAND OF THE SKY."

Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, of the Kentuckian-Citizen, who is at Lake Junaluska, N. C., as a delegate representing Kentucky at the National Conference of the Epworth League of the Methodist church, sends a member of THE NEWS staff an interesting letter, which is reproduced below:

"Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 15.

"DEAR NEWS:—

"After an hour's ride on the boat I am now ready to retire to 'Dreamland,' in 'The Land of the Sky.' This common phrase by which North Carolina is known is one that is justly deserved, and if you should visit Junaluska you would be thoroughly convinced that you were living in a 'land of the sky.'

"The Southern Assembly of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in selecting and improving Lake Junaluska has undoubtedly given the nation one of the most magnificent Chautauqua and playgrounds of the world. It is ideal in every sense of the word, including the purest and best water, which comes from springs that receive their supply from the surrounding mountains. The air is dry, crisp and bracing, and makes one feel like an entirely new person after being here a short time. The weather since my arrival has been ideal, with bright, balmy days, and the nights being cool enough to require blankets for covering. It was so cool here the first night that I spent at the Auditorium that I sent in a requisition for another blanket so as to be 'comfy' for the second night's sleep.

"You can imagine my very great surprise when I arrived here to find that the beautiful Junaluska Inn had burned on Thursday morning at two o'clock. My reservations had been made at the Inn, but I had no trouble in securing excellent accommodations at the Auditorium Hotel.

"Junaluska Inn was situated on a bluff 150 feet above and overlooking Lake Junaluska. I have never in all my life seen a more picturesque location. The Inn was complete in every respect, having 138 handsomely furnished rooms, and seventy-five rooms and suites with bath, hot and cold water in every room. The estimated cost of the building with furnishings was $130,000. It was insured for $75,000. I am pleased to state that plans are already being made for its rebuilding. At the time of the fire there were a great many guests at the Inn, most of whom lost practically all their personal belongings. One young woman was reported to have lost diamonds valued at $800.

"This afternoon the delegates took a hike around the Lake, which is a distance of over five miles. We are planning to ascend to the 'Eagle's Nest' Wednesday. This will be a hike of over six miles, starting from the Auditorium Hotel. I judge by the time I walk twelve miles in one day I will be ready for fried chicken and country ham, which we get here every day.

"Kentucky has the largest delegation of any Conference represented. We have all been assigned to one table in the dining room, and believe me, Xantippe, we make ourselves known on every occasion. And we made a specialty of singing 'My Old Kentucky Home.' Those from the 'Dark and Bloody Ground' are Misses Marguerite Morris, Emma Bedford and Miriam Hare, of Lexington; Margaret Bodkin and Katherine Reeves, Shelbyville; Mrs. James Current, Miss Lena Cooper and myself, from Paris. Rev. J. E. Savage and Mrs. Ashbrook, of Covington, are expected to-morrow.

"We are having a wonderful assembly, and some of the best talent that can be found to take part on the program. In addition to the royal good time we are having and the many pleasant experiences, our trip is proving a most inspiring and helpful one.

It is now near midnight, and my light, I think, is the only one left burning, so I judge I had better jump into a very inviting-looking bed. Give my best regards to all.

"Sincerely Yours,
"DENNIS V. SNAPP."

THE FIRST MOTION PICTURE

It has often been erroneously quoted that Thomas Edison made the first picture before a motion picture camera, says the September Motion Picture Magazine, but one Edward Muybridge, an inventive photographer in California, really deserves credit for the first film made. Leland Stanford heard of Muybridge and offered him a large sum of money if he could show a race horse in motion. On May 18, 1878, Muybridge made his first public attempt to photograph animate objects in continuity. He set up 24 cameras operated by strings which were broken by the horse's progress around the track, thus catching successive exposures, a crude method, but destined to be the mother of our great present-day inventions. There was a shed 120 feet long opposite the cameras, painted black to serve as a sharp contrast to the horses' appearances. Later there was a motor, and so revolutionary was the result of Muybridge's first work that the University of Pennsylvania donated forty thousand dollars for experimentation. Still later, Mons. Marey took up the work in Paris, using a sensitized film and single-camera.

Mr. McAdoo has raised the wages of nearly 2,000,000 men, all of whom vote. Pass prosperity around and make the nomination of Mr. McAdoo unanimous!

Next we may hear Hindenburg explain that his path to that Paris dinner was blocked by German dead.—Atlanta Constitution.

ENTERTAINING LETTER FROM FORMER "EMPIRE" SWEENEY

THE NEWS is in receipt of the following very interesting letter from Mr. Monroe Sweeney, formerly of Paris, who is now stationed at Cambridge, Mass., in the aviation school. Mr. Sweeney's letter, in part, is as follows:

"Cambridge, Mass., July 14.

DEAR NEWS:—

"Another week will find me on my way to either Miami, Key West, Fla., San Diego, Calif., Bay Shore, New York, or Akron, Ohio. I don't know which, but I sincerely hope it will be the last named place. That is the flying station I have applied for, but I will not know until Wednesday, as that is the day all applications are considered and acted upon.

"Have been pretty busy recently with our final examinations, and now that we are in our A or senior flight we have a little time to ourselves, which is the only time we really have during the course. Last week we had final exams in engines, (2), gunnery, navigation, theory of flight and seamanship, and we are yet to take our final exams in photography, aerography, aerial observation, advanced navigation, radio and rigging. We get most of them on Wednesday, and at noon Friday school is out. Tomorrow morning we will go up to Harvard for our final blood test.

"Have had quite a bit of work lately in assembling and disassembling. Was working on the A-129 most of last week, and it seems more like a Pullman car than a seaplane. If I get in the heavier-than-aircraft service am very anxious to get in one of the big H-boats, as they must be wonderful machines, judging from what the boys write from Florida. However, I hope to get in the 'blimps' or dirigible balloon service, and will be stationed at Akron, Ohio, as the navy has a large farm about ten miles from the city.

"I surely do enjoy the 'In The Service' column that runs in your paper, and evidently, judging from it, there are not very many of the boys left in the old town. It is always the first thing I read as soon as I get THE NEWS, as I am anxious to know where the boys are stationed, what they are doing and what they have to say.

"As well as being interesting, it is amusing to me to note some of the letters written from Camp Zachary Taylor by our good friend, Jack Turney. I think the genial Jack has undoubtedly missed his calling, and that he could serve his country first-rate in the capacity of humorist for one of the large dailies, in fact better than as the bearer of a Springfield rifle. Not for a minute doubting his ability as a soldier.

"Would certainly like to get a couple of days off and run down to Camp Mills, and see Doug Clay, and the other Bourbon boys there before the Dr. Barrow Unit leaves. Will let you know my address when I leave here, as I do not want to miss a single copy of THE NEWS. With kindest regards and best of luck to everybody, I am,

"J. MONROE SWEENEY."

CONGRESS GIVES PRESIDENT COVETED WIRE CONTROL.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Congress, Saturday night granted President Wilson's request for authority to take over and operate telegraph, telephone, cable and radio lines. By a vote of 46 to 16—the minority all Republicans—the Senate adopted without amendment, the House resolution granted such power for the period of the war.

The resolution will be signed by presiding officers of the Senate and House and transmitted to the President Monday.

All attempts to amend or modify the Administration measure, which passed the House July 5 by a vote of 221 to 4, were defeated at a session lasting until 9 o'clock Saturday night. Amendments by Senator Watson, of Indiana, to except telephones and press wires from the resolution were defeated, respectively, 41 to 20 and 39 to 21. An amendment by Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, Democrat, to limit action regarding telephones to long-distance wires was voted down, while an amendment by Senator Reed, of Missouri, designed to insure unrestricted public use of facilities, was twice rejected.

BONDS OF THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN.

Bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan are now being turned out by the thousands daily by the Treasury's Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The bonds are similar in form and design to those of the third loan, and space has been left on each bond for insertion of the exact terms of the bonds.

It is believed that a sufficient number of the bonds will be ready to make possible immediate delivery of all bonds of the fourth loan as they are purchased.

If, as seems probable, food conservation demands the elimination of the linen collar in favor of the celluloid neck surround, an increase in the city Fire Department impends.

FINE LINE OF NEW ENGRAVED SAMPLES JUST IN.

THE NEWS has just received from the Jenner Co., of Louisville, one of the most noted engraving houses in America, a fine new line of samples of engraved goods, for which this house is justly famous. These samples can be seen at THE NEWS office by those in need of anything in the way of engraved stationery, etc. We reproduce a letter from the Jenner Company, accompanying their elegant line of samples:

"Louisville, Ky., July 18, 1918.

"THE NEWS, Paris, Ky.
"We are going to take pains—we always try to do this with our good friends and customers, some time we slip—to send you a nice variety of samples, just such a line as with which practically we supply our very largest customers, but we feel that you will take care of them in a way that will result to our mutual benefit.

"Paris, we know, used to be a good society town, and, we believe, that with this lot of samples you will, at least, get your share of the business and hope that you will get more than your share, and we want you to know just now, that we will, gladly, do anything in the world we can for you in an effort to co-operate with you.

Through a misunderstanding of names Mr. Paynter went to Middlesboro, instead of Millersburg, where Capt. Hobson spoke at the Chautauqua. He met Hobson at Falmouth and will accompany him on part of his lecturing tour.

—Miss Elizabeth Crutcher gave a "hide-and-seek handkerchief shower" last night at the home of Mrs. Georgia Webb and Miss Nellie Fithian, on Stoner avenue, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Brown, who is soon to become the bride of Rev. J. J. Rice, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church. A large number of guests responded to invitations to be present, and spent a delightful evening with the hostess and the guest of honor.

Yesterday afternoon the fair bride-elect was tendered a reception by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, the happy event taking place in the new church edifice which is about completed. A large number of guests attended the reception, and joined in pre-nuptial congratulations to Miss Brown and Rev. Rice, felicitating them upon their coming wedding.

Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of those complaints and if I should need a kidney remedy again, I would certainly take Doan's."

AMERICA'S BIG ARMY PUT IN FIELD ON RECORD TIME.

Reduction by half of the time it was originally estimated it would take to put America's first field army in France, was disclosed with the formal announcement by General March that three full army corps had been organized by General Pershing and that the number of soldiers sent overseas now numbered more than 1,100,000.

The eighteen divisions comprising the corps, consisting of four regular, nine national guard and five national army divisional units, probably will compose the first army which, with supplemented army troops such as heavy artillery, will total a million men.

Instead of one field army on January 1, 1919, as originally planned, it now appears probable that two such armies will be operating in France by that time backed by full American built and maintained supply lines. The great project of establishing the American army as the right flank of the battle line will then be within sight.

General March said organization of the first field army had not yet been completed. The formation of the three corps, however, and his announcement that troop movements to France were proceeding at the same astonishing rate that has been the rule for the last three months, made the American military program clear.

PAPER WASTAGE BY THE GOVERNMENT POINTED OUT.

A committee of the Eastern paper manufacturers has sounded what seems to be a long-neglected note with the purpose of revealing the shortage of white paper, now growing daily more acute. Paper wastage, the committee declares, is extravagant and unchecked except for the efforts of the newspaper publishers. The Government itself is one of the chief offenders. Thousands of pounds of paper are used in Government circulars, printed on one side only and mailed in large envelopes, which, by possibly half of their recipients, are thrown unopened into waste-paper baskets. "Security leagues," and similar organizations waste tons of paper in this way, also, far exceeding the Government in the extent of their futile and unnecessary mail circulations.

Among the suggestions brought forward lately by paper men for aiding the market is that all laid papers be eliminated, special finishes such as linen or vellum be dispensed with, bond papers be limited to five grades, colors be reduced, maximum weight bases established and all special orders be made only on a substance weight basis and only on orders for 10,000 pounds or more of a special size.

There is great waste of all kinds of paper according to many dealers. Writing on one side of note paper, for instance, and using long sheets when short ones would do is practiced everywhere. Wrapping paper is tossed away after being used once and the pieces are virtually too large for the bundles. When a butcher slaps a minute bit of steak into a sheet of paper big enough to carpet a parlor floor he may be making the package look as though it were worth the small fortune paid for it, but he certainly is not conserving paper.

PIG CLUB BOYS TO TAKE TRIP TO STATE FAIR.

The arrangement for another Farm Boys' Encampment at the State Fair, September 9 to 14, inclusive, has been made. One boy from the Boys' Agricultural Club in each county will be chosen as a representative and will receive this trip with all expenses paid, including railroad fare, board and lodging for the week.

This boy will be selected by the County Agent, Mr. L. S. Robbins, not later than August 15th. This, however does not preclude the selection of a boy later on for a trip to the State Fair because of the boy having the best pig at the Pig Club Show of the county. The boy to be selected August 15th will be the one that has taken the greatest interest in the development of his pig and has kept his record book in the best shape. It is probable that an Agricultural Board of Control will be organized in this county soon and that the selection of this boy may be turned over to the committee. The latter part of August the Pig Club Show will be held in the county and the boys in the Pig Club are now striving to see which can come out winner in the exhibit. Money prizes and a trip to the State Fair are held out as premiums to the winners. It is hoped, however, that a good many boys and girls from this county, whether they are winners or not will decide to compete for the thousand dollars in premiums offered at the State Fair on exhibits of pigs, calves, sheep, soy beans, potatoes, corn, etc.

Y.M.C.A. HUT IS THEIR HANG OUT

Yanks Travel Many Miles to Spend Evening in the Club.

SOMEBODY ALWAYS ON JOB

"Y' Guy" Can Be Depended Upon to Get Move On in Emergency—Men Made to Feel Perfectly Free and Unrestrained.

By CLARENCE BUDINGTON KEL- LAND.

Paris.—Thirty sailors off an American war vessel hired a motor truck and drove nine miles to get to the Y. M. C. A. club in a famous French city. I asked them why.

"Because it's a regular hangout," one of them said, and another added, "Because you get white bread with butter on it, and eggs fried on both sides and coffee with piano accompaniment."

As soon as I broke into the place I found why men would ride nine miles on a truck to loaf there from eight until eleven.

It wasn't the sort of place folks in the United States imagine a Y. M. C. A. to be. It was a swelteringly hot night, and the broad front steps were lined from end to end with men in khaki and men in navy blue. They were gassing and smoking until the place looked as if the captain had ordered a smoke screen to help him through the submarine zone.

From the street you could hear a piano doing business and a lot more men in uniform howling, "Joan of Arc." If the mothers of these boys could have heard that racket their hearts would have dropped off a pound of weight and increased their beat by ten to the second. They sang as if they were glad to be alive.

Right on the Job.

And then somebody busted up the game. A sailorman came in and made the announcement that the driver of their truck refused to take them back to quarters again, and it was a walk of nine miles on a hot night, or a stretch in the brig for them. Gloom descended. Then somebody turned around and bellowed, "Where's one of them 'Y' guys?"

A "Y" guy happened to be on the spot and in a second he was surrounded, not by a crowd of men who were angry or in a mood to demand something, but by fellows who were mighty courteous in an unpleasant situation. That was something worth remarking, and it made you sort of glad to be around.

They put the thing up to the "Y" guy and one fellow said sort of bashful-like, "We don't want to act like we was puttin' this up to you. 'Taint your fault, but—"

It was apparent they had gotten the idea somehow that you could depend on a "Y" guy to get a move on him, and the "Y" guy allowed as much.

"Sure, it's up to us," he said, "that's why we're here."

Inside of twenty minutes he was back with a big truck with a red triangle on the side of it. He tucked the thirty sailormen into it and off they went to keep their appointment with their boss.

That, quite likely, is one reason why they rode nine miles to spend an evening in the Y. M. C. A., because they knew somebody was on the job.

Like You Owned the Place.

Another reason is that you don't have to knock, show a ticket, wiggle your first finger or roll over and play dead to get in. You just walk in like you were there to foreclose a first mortgage on the place.

When you walk through the front door you don't run into a lecture hall, though there is one upstairs, and the odor that comes to your nose isn't the odor of sanctity. It's the smell of fried eggs. The cafeteria is the first thing you meet, and if you are wise you get acquainted with it and stay acquainted while you are in this locality, for it is the best and cheapest place to eat in town. I know because I tried several.

The most impressive thing about it is the complete absence of an ostentatious welcome. You just help yourself and nobody says a word. You wander in and eat and wipe your mouth on your sleeve and hike upstairs to mess around on a piano or write a letter or play billiards, or to do as you doggone please. You are free. To be able to make a huge number of men feel perfectly free and unrestrained and at home is quite some little accomplishment. I haven't had time to find out how it is done, but the next time I have a party at my house I'm going to try it on. It's the real thing in hospitality.

SURPRISE FOR CHURCH FOLKS

Called an Hour Earlier for Prayer Meeting and Set to Digging Dandelions.

Denver, Colo.—Every member of City Park Baptist church was urgently requested to attend a special mid-week prayer meeting and to be on hand an hour earlier than usual. When the "worshippers" arrived the pastor produced an old case knife for each member, pointed to a church lawn badly cluttered by dandelions and told men and women alike to get busy. At the end of an hour of digging the lawn was clear of weeds.

An Aphorism Falls Down.
Census has not yet been able to utter an aphorism that would hold good in every instance. "Familiarity breeds contempt," they say. Every notable poet, essayist or artist whatsoever has left a tribute to his mother, either by personal tribute, or dedication or through symbolism, of love for his mother. Yet no other man has ever found such expression, however sublime, that could measure up to his own idea of his mother's virtues. And where is familiarity so pronounced as between mother and son?—Seattle Post Intelligencer.

Teeth to Blame.

The worst criminals seem to be the teeth. The Paris Medical takes a new fling at them, blaming them for sins usually charged to wronged, misjudged tuberculosis. "Baudé insists that with enlarged glands in the neck, the primary lesion should be sought in the teeth, before incriminating the tubercle bacilli, and urges that the physician should insist on the teeth being put in order as an indispensable element of whatever treatment he is instituting."

To Reduce Flesh.

To reduce superfluous fat you must work. Your path will wind through many lanes of self-sacrifice before your mirror will give back the coveted willowy image. Your attainment of the ideal will mean hot work, too, for vigorous exercise is necessary. A daily walk of five miles should not be excessive if you are in good condition. Give a fair trial to the tonic baths so helpful for many girls who complain of "tired feelings."

Ornamental Trees.

As ornamental trees the Japanese and Chinese persimmons are entitled to high rank. When the trees are in full leaf they are handsome without other adornment. The trees loaded with orange and orange-red fruits are among the most striking objects in the garden. All thrive in California, and not elsewhere except in some southern states.

Population of the Earth.

In 1787 the population of the earth, according to Busching, was about 1,000,000,000; in 1800, according to Fabri and Stein, only 900,000,000; in 1838, according to Stein and Horschelmann, 872,000,000. In 1858 Dietrich estimated it at 1,236,000,000 and Kolb, in 1865, at 1,220,000,000. According to the latest calculations the earth is inhabited by 1,400,000,000 human beings.

Where Sardines Are Found.

Sardines are abundantly found off the Gallician, Andalusian and Cantabrian coasts. This fish varies in length from approximately 4½ to 7½ inches and weighs from 24 to 68 grams (0.864 to 2.398 ounces); occasionally larger specimens are caught.

Explained.

What They Left Behind.

We know of a lot of men who didn't leave much behind them in the way of actual cash accumulated but they did leave families rich in the memories of the happiness they had while they were alive.

Absorbing the Sun's Heat.

According to an Italian scientist's figures a square mile of the earth's surface in six hours of sunshine receives heat equivalent to the combustion of more than 2,600 tons of coal.

When a woman who married a man to reform him lives to be sixty years old without becoming a widow, she is about as pathetic a picture of animated weariness as one ever sees.

War Macaroni.

Somebody is complaining of the size of the war macaroni. We have always preferred the 44-calibre kind to the sort they call vermicelli, as Samivel Weller would say.

Armament of the Monitor.

The armament of the Monitor, which defeated the Merrimack, consisted of two eleven-inch guns, throwing 180-pound shot.

The Better Way.

It is better to worry about what may happen and get busy to prevent it than to spend a lifetime worrying after it has happened.

Method.

"How did you get the reputation of being so wise?" "I talk with a man till I discover something he doesn't know anything about. Then I pretend to explain it to him."—Washington Star.

A Test of Time.

Another way in which a man can tell when he's getting along in years is by noticing whether a reference to the veterans of '98 sounds at all funny to him or not.

Enough to Go Around.

Don't imagine that you're getting all the hard luck or all the good luck, because that never happened to anybody and never will.

AMERICAN TROOPS SHOWING
BOCHES SOME TRICKS.

ON THE FRENCH FRONT IN FRANCE, July 18.—It was a brilliant operation in which the American troops ejected the enemy from the positions he had gained temporarily on the southern side of the Marne. The Americans counter-attacked vigorously Tuesday evening with remarkable dash, throwing the Germans back across the near Fossey. Earlier in the day this part of the line had been the scene of the most desperate fighting, when the Germans started to throw pontoons across the stream. A few German elements at first succeeded in getting over in boats, chasing the allied troops away from the banks, while the German engineers began to lay the bridges. Six of these bridges formed a lattice work and rapidly joined the banks on either side. Two of the bridges were most substantial structures and between twenty and thirty feet in width.

French airplanes played great havoc in the German ranks while the bridges were under construction. One bombing squadron flying at a height of 200 metres, dropped bombs on two of these bridges while enemy troops were crossing. The bridges were broken and the soldiers thrown in the river. The aviators constantly bombed the other bridges and did great execution among the Germans on the bridges as well as on the banks where the enemy was concentrated in great masses.

PARIS, July 18.—The battle continued violently, especially south of Marne there was no change in the situation.

Except for one sector south of the Marne there is no change in the situation. American and French troops were counter-attacking magnificently and taking many prisoners, according to the statement issued by the war office.

South of the Marne, the Germans have not been able to advance their line beyond St. Agnan, La Chapelle, Monthodon, Lisieres and south of the forest of Bouquigny. The French in this region have taken a thousand prisoners.

On the front east of Rheims, in spite of terrific fighting during the past day and night the enemy has not been able to penetrate the French zone of defense.

The German loss in prisoners during the first day of the battle was extremely heavy.

The text of the statement reads: "The battle continues with redoubled violence. Between Chateau Thierry and Rheims the enemy is launching furious attacks. The combats are particularly violent south of the Marne and in the region of Chatillon."

"French and American troops are resisting magnificently and counter-attacking many times with the utmost vigor."

"South of the Marne the Germans have not been able to advance their lines beyond St. Agnan, La Chapelle, Monthodon, Lisieres and south of the forest of Bouquigny. In this region the French have taken 1,000 prisoners. Mareuil-le-Port, on the Marne south of Chatillon, is held by the French."

"North of the Marne the French have held up the enemy in the outskirts of Chatillon and southeast of Rodemat wood. In this region there is no appreciable change in the rest of the line. All German attacks during the course of the night failed."

"On the front east of Rheims the fighting, while of the utmost violence, was unfruitful and the enemy during the past day and night has not been able to penetrate the French zone of defense which runs to the eastward through Jurnay. The battle positions of the French are intact. "The enemy losses in prisoners during the first day of the battle have been extremely heavy."

AMERICAN RED CROSS HOSPITAL
BOMBED BY GERMANS.

PARIS, FRANCE, July 18.—German aviators Monday night dropped bombs on the American Red Cross hospital at Jouy. Two enlisted men were killed and among the personnel, nine persons were wounded.

Miss Jane Jeffery, an American Red Cross nurse, was among those wounded, but her injuries are not serious.

The hospital was deliberately bombed by the German aviators. It was full of wounded at the time and doctors were performing operations at four tables. The operations continued notwithstanding the explosions.

At least three bombs were dropped on the hospital. One destroyed three tents. Additional doctors were telephoned for immediately and the work of the hospital was continued without interruption.

THRESHING RATES FIXED FOR BOURBON FARMERS.

At a meeting of representative farmers of this county, held in this city, an agreement was made whereby a fixed rate of twenty-five cents per bushel for threshing wheat, where the coal for the engines was furnished by the farmers, was established.

It has been ascertained through the investigation of a number of interested parties, that Mr. J. C. Scobee, of Clark county, had been making a charge of as high as thirty-five cents per bushel for threshing wheat in this county, the farmers in many instances agreeing to pay the high price rather than take the risk of having their wheat spoiled by the frequent rains.

On Tuesday a number of farmers drove to the farm of Mr. Allie G. Jones, near North Middletown, where Mr. Scobee's machines were at work and presented the matter to Mr. Scobee from their viewpoint. At the request of the committee, Mr. Scobee entered into an agreement, which was signed by him, in which he agreed to meet the new rate that had been established by the Bourbon county farmers. The agreement was as follows:

"I agree to thresh wheat in Bourbon county for twenty-five cents per bushel, and three and one-half cents for fuel, and I also agree not to accept a bonus of any nature from anyone."

"J. C. SCOBEE."
The committee was composed of the following: A. B. Hancock, Sam Clay, John Woodford, Woodford Buckner, Edward Burke, J. W. Jones, M. J. Lavin, James M. Caldwell, Lawrence Mitchell, Will G. McClintock, John T. Collins, Ben Woodford, Sr., and John J. Redmon.

GREAT LAKES NAVAL STATION
BAND COMING TO PARIS.

In the last issue of THE NEWS appeared an item regarding the probable visit to this city soon of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station Band, which is making a tour of Kentucky in the interest of enlistments in the United States navy. It was not known positively at that time just when the band would visit this section of the State, but the announcement was made from the bandstand by a representative that it would be very soon.

Mr. Rudolph Davis, of Paris, always in the forefront of things enterprising, visited Louisville, Wednesday on business, and while there paid a visit to the headquarters of the organization, where, after consultation with Bandmaster Smith, he made arrangements for the appearance of the band in Paris. While the date was not specified, it was stated that it would be some time next week. Mr. Davis called THE NEWS by long distance phone yesterday morning, and gave the welcome information that the band would positively be here some day next week. The public will be informed through the Paris press of its coming and the exact hour, if possible to get the information.

The band will leave Louisville next Monday, and will spend four days in Lexington and vicinity. From there it will come to Paris. The organization is composed of thirty-six skilled musicians, personally selected by Bandmaster John Philip Sousa, for the trip and placed in the care of Bandmaster S. M. Smith, who will direct it in all the concerts to be given. The program to be rendered here will embrace selections from the noted composers, patriotic airs and popular music from all the latest hits of the day.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS GIVEN GOOD POSITIONS.

Thomas Underwood, of Hopkinsville, has been promoted from the position of reporter on the Lexington Herald to that of city editor of the same publication. Young Underwood was a student in the Department of Journalism, University of Kentucky, before going to the Herald.

His successor on the editorial force of the Herald is Thornton Connell, of Paris, also a student of journalism in the University, and during the session of 1917-18 editor of the Kernel, student weekly publication of the University. Mr. Connell will continue his work at the University and graduate next year, taking his A. B. degree in journalism. He was a fellow-student at the College of Journalism with Mr. Wayne Cottingham, lately of Paris, now one of the "star" reporters on the staff of The Lexington Daily Leader.

MORE EXAMPLES OF "GERMAN KULTUR" SHOWN.

LONDON, July 16.—In a recent German raid on the Belgians more than fifty girls were killed by air bombs launched upon an ambulance park at La Penne, behind the Yper front. According to a special dispatch from The Hague fifty bombs were dropped in the immediate neighborhood of the park and several struck a large villa about a hundred yards from the hospital.

Of the many girls of the villa engaged in making bandages and repairing linen for the wounded thirty were instantly killed or died from injuries within a few minutes. Forty injured were removed from the villa, of whom twenty-four died later.

With the outbreak of influenza in Germany a danger zone is established which even the Kaiser and his six saffron sons cannot escape.

Could the eternal verities have better illustration than is furnished by the fact that a German propagandist turns out to be a butcher?

A woman believes that if her husband had any brains he could keep up his life insurance without having to pay the premiums.

CUT TIME ON SHIPS

New Record for Rapid Construction Is Set.

Baltimore Shipbuilding Company Reduces the Present Average by Half.

Washington.—In its effort to set a new record for rapid ship construction, the Baltimore Dry Dock and Shipbuilding company has cut in half the present average time for construction of contract steel ships. This average for the 12 contract steel ships built to date is 130 5-6 days.

In prewar days a year was regarded as fast time for building a steel vessel of or above 6,000 tons.

The ten fastest built vessels for the shipping board have averaged 99 9-10 days between keel laying and delivery. The 5,500-ton collier Tuckahoe, record holder in this or any other year, was built in 37 days. On the list of the ten fastest built ships the slowest time was 119 days. Here is the list:

Tuckahoe, 5,500 tons, New York Shipbuilding company, 37 days.

West Lianga, 8,800 tons, Skinner & Eddy corporation, Seattle, 78 days.

West Alsek, 8,800 tons, Skinner & Eddy corporation, Seattle, 92 days.

Ossineke, 8,571 tons, Skinner & Eddy corporation, Seattle, 108 days.

West Durfee, 8,800 tons, Skinner & Eddy corporation, Seattle, 111 days.

Western Queen, 8,800 tons, Skinner & Eddy corporation, Seattle, 113 days.

Lake Huron, 3,100 tons, American S. B. Co., Chicago, 117 days.

Lake Forest, 3,100 tons, American S. B. Co., Chicago, 119 days.

On the Pacific coast the five vessels built in the fastest time have averaged 100 1-5 days between keel laying and delivery; on the Great Lakes, 124 2-5 days; on the Atlantic coast, 209 1-5 days.

WEST POINT GRADUATE

ICED DRINKS UNDER BAN

State Food Administration of Arkansas Rules Out Cooling Beverages.

Little Rock, Ark.—The girls may continue to wear $90 gowns, $25 boots and hose that cost more than a pair of shoes did a generation ago, but in this town they will not flirt among the round tables in the soda joints, sipping soft drinks at the expense of soldier boys or loving swains. The state food administration has knocked these good times on the head. The girls must learn that the country is at war. No more, according to the order of the food administration, shall soft drink stands serve iced tea, sherbet and water ices. An order has also been issued denying manufacturers of soft drinks who have used their 1918 sugar allotment more sugar for the remainder of the year.

Eagle Attacks Woman.

Franklin, W. Va.—A bald eagle that has made frequent excursions into this part of the country, made a vicious attack on Mrs. Anna Simmons while she was walking to her home near this city. Three deep wounds were made in her face where the eagle's talons had gouged into the flesh. Will Halterman, who ran to her assistance, was also attacked and forced to seek shelter.

I Saw in the Paper.

"I have just learned of a new way to remove a scorch from linen," said the woman who studies the papers. "I'm always scorched; tell me about it," requested the woman who did not know.

"It is a little troublesome at first. You put two ounces of fuller's earth into a pan, add half an ounce of white soap, the juice of two large onions and half a pint of vinegar. You boil this together for a few minutes, then you put in a covered vessel for future use. When you have a scorch, you spread this mixture on it with a knife. Let it dry on the cloth and the stain will disappear."

Business Courtesy.

A business man rises to welcome his wife or a woman friend or a woman relative who visits him at his office, but he does not rise to greet his stenographer or other woman employees. No business woman is justified in resenting this distinction. The custom cannot be construed to mean that the man does not respect his women employees highly. It simply means that in the business world, as nowhere else, women and men are all human beings working together, and on much the same plane of courtesy.

Novel Treatment.

A whirlpool bath is the novel treatment applied at a hospital in Manchester, England, for cases of rheumatism, following typhoid and dysentery. The tank, large enough for 12 men, contains 4 feet of water and is provided with seats on which the bathers are immersed to their necks. The temperature is kept at 93 degrees Fahrenheit, just below that of the body. The room is quiet and dimly lighted, and after an hour in the bath the men go to rest rooms.

By a Long Path.

"All that we possess has come to us by a long path. There is no instantaneous liberty or wisdom, language or religion." Even that which comes to us as a sudden revelation is but the opening of our eyes or minds to behold that which has long been begun by toil and struggle. It reaches us as the sunlight does in the morning, when it has travelled around the world.

Women Soldiers in China.

China had women soldiers long before they were known in Russia. During the Tae Ping rebellion, 1850, women as well as men served in the ranks. In Nanking, in 1853, an army of 500,000 women was recruited. They were divided into brigades of 13,000 each and were commanded by women officers.

Interesting Discovery.

The Roman occupation of England was recalled by a discovery made a few days ago at Stalbridge, Dorset. Working in his garden, a man dug up a skeleton. Examining it he found it to be in a perfect state of preservation, the teeth being quite sound. In the mouth was a coin bearing the inscription of Caesar Augustus.

First Called Sleuthhounds.

Bloodhounds were first known as sleuthhounds, owing to their ability to track the deer, wild boar or the wolf. When the wounded game broke away and was lost, these good-nosed dogs were used in trailing the quarry by the blood trail, and hence they were finally called bloodhounds.

Memories of the Crowded City.

"This ark is terribly crowded with all these animals aboard," remarked Japhet. "Yes," replied Shem. "And it's lonely at that. It makes me think of one of those apartment houses where they let people have all kinds of pets and won't admit children."

Oriental Rugs.

Not only the design but the colors of the rugs woven in the Orient are full of significance. They represent national or individual traditions, and stand for virtues, vices and social importance.

A Fantastical Terror.

"It's curious how soldier uniforms always show an influence on feminine fashions." "Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "But I hope we won't keep on shortening skirts until we begin to imitate the Scottish Highlanders."

A Racy Item.

A New York dye expert declares that "American dyes are as fast, class for class, as German dyes."

Happy Thought—Write article on speed in dyes. Study the classes, those in the 2.04 class and so on. Discourage bookmaking and side bets as degrading to a noble sport.

Discovers Ice Cream Soda.

The honor of discovering ice-cream soda is generally given to Robert M. Green, who served the delicacy to the semi-centennial celebration of Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, in the summer of 1874, and advertised it at that time as something absolutely new.

Would Puzzle Socrates.

Were Socrates to come among us now he would probably want to know why Mexican poodles have no hair, Manx cats no tails, and pacifists no peace.

That's the Question.

Mr. Oldboy—"Marry me and I could die happy." Miss Bright—"Yes, you could—but would you?"

The Bourbon Oil & Development Co., of this city, has two wells in this territory, one, the No. 1, on the L. C. Harris lease, with a production of twenty barrels per day, and the other, No. 2, on the same lease, with a production of twenty-five barrels.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

While climbing a tree in the yard of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Rice, on Mt. Airy Avenue, Edwin Rice, aged nine, slipped and fell to the ground a distance of twenty feet or more. He sustained serious injuries, his body being bruised and a deep cut in his leg where it struck a wooden stub in the ground.

Young Rice was rendered unconscious by the fall and shock. His mother hearing the screams of his companions, came to the place and carried him to the house, where physicians restored him to consciousness and administered medical aid. He was reported yesterday as being somewhat improved.

W.O. HINTON & SON, Agts

FLEMING COUNTY FIRES.

At Oakley, in Fleming county, fire of unknown origin destroyed the store room belonging to Mr. Matthew Jolly, it being a total loss, with little, if any insurance, to cover the property loss. The store had been vacant for some time.

The residence of Mr. H. L. Faul, near Martha Mills, in the same county, was destroyed by fire which originated from a defective flue in the kitchen. Nearly all of the household effects and all of the personal belongings of the occupants were consumed in the flames. In trying to save some of the furniture Mr. Faul's daughter had a bone broken in one foot. There was an insurance of about $300 on the house, but none on the household goods.
